Mum's the word...

Dear Parents

Isn't it lovely to have had such glorious weather this week? The school is always picture perfect but I just love seeing the sun shining down on it and the everyone always seems to smile in the sun!

Yesterday you would have received some lovely flowers. These were arranged by Ian and Barbara McDougall for the children to take home for Mother's Day or to give to someone they love and who cares for them to say thank you! Thank you both for organizing this for the children.

Huxley's Got Talent

Just a reminder that Huxley's Got Talent is this Thursday at 2pm. The children in Oaks will be performing their brass piece and recorders are sharing the piece they have been learning in club. After this, the children who have entered will be showing off their talents.

Parents Evening

Parents Evening is Wednesday 20th April starting at 1.30pm. You will have received a message today about booking your time slot.

Roadworks

I have been told today that unfortunately they cannot reschedule the roadworks next week but that they will try to ensure that they stop and cars can get through at the start and end of the school day.

Art

We had a great afternoon of art this week. The children experimented with different ways to print with Mrs Garner and they got to use an old printing press kindly brought in by The Grant-Penney family. Thank you to both families for a lovely afternoon.

Books

We have a lot of reading books that are not being returned. These books have cost a lot of money and it is meaning that our children are now having to share books. Please have a look at home and if you have any could you please return them so we can do an audit over Easter

Easter Eggs and Bonnets

Next week we will be having some Easter fun. On Wednesday we will have an Easter Bonnet parade for anyone who wants to join in. There will be a small prize. We will also have an 'egg'cellent fun activities during the week.

Messy Church

Please see the flyer below about Messy Church events at our church, St Peters at Hargrave.

Many thanks
